

ABOUT US

Marco Tamborrino & Chiara Pagliochini, young writers hungry for travels and good reads. Since 2015 we have been traveling together and sharing our experiences on www.viaggiascrittori.com.

The blog gathers our greatest passions: cultural and couple itineraries, creative writing, books, art, cooking, and social media.

Italy and Europe are our favorite destinations, but we like to be surprised by every glimpse of the world.

OUR BLOG

Over the past year, www.viaggiascrittori.com has recorded 93K monthly pageviews, with approximately 61K unique users each month. Our readers are 59% women and 41% men, mostly between 25 and 34 years old.
